Noted Minister Leaves Pulpit

Dr. E. L. Southgate, the "grand old man" of the Methodist Church of Kentucky, after 54-2 years' service, has just retired from the ministry, and will leave Georgetown Thursday for his future home in Lexington, where he has spent the greatest portion of his life.

Dr. Southgate entered the ministry when he was twenty years of age, on March 18, 1866. Although 73 years of age, his physician, Dr. W. H. Coffman, said his physical and mental status is above normal for one of his age. His mental grasp of matters past and present is very unusual. His walk has in it the vigor and elasticity of a man of forty years. I consider him an unusually well preserved man.

For twelve years, Dr. Southgate acted as presiding elder in various districts in Kentucky, in the Covington district from 1886 to 1890; in the Lexington district from 1897 to 1911, and in the Frankfort district from 1911 to 1915. It was he who established the Epworth Church in Lexington in 1894-95, when there was but one Methodist church in the city. Many honors have been deservedly conferred upon the beloved old minister. In 1894-95 he was chairman of the Lexington Ministerial Union, also chairman of the executive committee, in 1906 he was president of the ministerial alliance of the city of Nashville, was a member of the General Conference held in St. Louis, and a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference held at Washington, D. C.

Dr. Southgate is a member of the John C. Breckinridge Chapter of Confederate Veterans, and enjoyed the distinction of being chaplain of the Confederate Veteran's Association of Kentucky for several years. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was twice conferred upon this distinguished pastor by the Kentucky Wesleyan College and by the Miami University, where he graduated in the same class with Carter Harrison, brother of President Benjamin Harrison.

At the State Methodist Conference just concluded at Lexington, President H. C. Morrison, of Asbury College, in giving an address on "The Great and Near Great Men," elaborated on Dr. Southgate as the "John of the Kentucky Conference" and, after vociferous applause, Presiding Elder Pierce Trotter, who is one of Dr. Southgate's "spiritual sons" suggested that a "Chautauqua Salute" be given the venerable and revered gentleman. Dr. Southgate declared that it was the most beautiful tribute ever paid him.

Now, in the fullness of his years and experiences, he will settle down in Lexington to devote his entire attention to his literary pursuits.

Dr. Southgate was twice pastor of the Mt. Sterling church and is one of the best beloved ministers that ever held a pastorate in this city—being equally popular with citizens in all walks of life, regardless of their religious beliefs.

Robert Smith Dies At Home in Ohio

Robert Smith, formerly of this city, son of Holly and Kate Smith, deceased, died at his home in Ashville, Ohio, Thursday, from paralysis and was buried Sunday at Hillsboro, Ohio.

He was about 45 years old and leaves a wife and two children, a son and a daughter, and two sisters, Mrs. L. E. Griggs and Miss Lucy Smith, of this city. His sisters reached the bedside of their brother a few hours before death came and Mr. Griggs attended the burial service with them at Hillsboro.

Robert Smith was a farmer of prominence and one of the leading agriculturists of his county. We knew him as a boy, a young man and in maturer years, and ours are words of praise. Early in life he became a member of the Baptist church of this city, and with his sisters were regular attendants at all services. His adopted state will miss him in the various walks of life for he had developed into an ideal man whose counsel was of worth.

CHILD DIES

Wm. Coons, little four months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Atkinson, of Lexington, died at their home in that city Saturday morning September 4th. Mrs. Atkinson is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Coons, of this city. Funeral services were conducted at the home of Mr. Coons by Prof. A. W. Fortune, of Lexington and Bro. B. W. Trimble, of this city, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, with burial in Maehpelah cemetery. Their many friends here sympathize with them in their sorrow.

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death,
And with His sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And flowers that grow between.
Shall I have naught that is fair saith He,
Have naught but the bearded grain,
Tho the breath of flowers is sweet to me
I'll give them back again,
Not cruelly, Oh! Not in wrath
An angel visited the earth and took the flower away."

WILL REMODEL

S. C. Ebbert, of Birmingham, Ala., son-in-law of Mrs. T. G. Julian, to whom the corner building on Main and Maysville streets belongs, and known as the Julian property, will go to in a division of the real estate of the late T. G. Julian, will remodel and greatly improve the property. The present occupants, Hombs & Heibel, will take over and occupy the entire first floor and will enlarge their stock in proportion to the added space. The building beautified will make the store of Hombs & Heibel all the more popular.

CHICKENS FOR SALE

Fifty pure Barred Plymouth Rock Pullets, April hatch. Prices reasonable if taken at once.—Mrs. Jas. Cravens. Phone 660-W. 93-2t

The loneliness of a great city of which much has been said is hardly perceptible unless one is broke.

Paulist Priest To Lecture Here

The Rev. Arthur R. Miller, C. S. P., will begin a series of lectures at St. Patrick's Church Oct. 3rd. Rev. Miller was here last fall and his lectures were attended by a great many Protestants as well as those of his own faith. His subjects for the coming series are as follows:

1. "Is Life Worth Living?"
2. "What Is Wrong With the World?"
3. "The Abuse of Freedom."
4. "The Priest and the Confessional."
5. "Love, Marriage and Divorce."
6. "The Catholics and the Mass."
7. "Spiritualism, New and Old."
8. "The City On the Hill."
9. "Catholic Ideals."
10. "Why I Am a Catholic."

There will be a question box at the entrance of the church and people are invited to deposit questions on any point of the Catholic faith. These questions will be answered each evening before the lecture proper.

Haggard Trial Set For Tomorrow

After a conference of attorneys Saturday afternoon it was decided to postpone the examining trial of Rodney H. Haggard, charged with the murder of Ben Good, until Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock on account of the absence of several witnesses. Maury Kemper, of Lexington, appeared as counsel for the prosecution, and will assist County Attorney Moore. Benton & Davis, Judge J. M. Stevenson, J. Smith Hays, G. F. Wycoff and F. M. Haggard, the latter a brother of the accused, are the attorneys for the defense. County Attorney Moore stated that he judged there could not now be twelve men found in Clark county who had not disqualified themselves as jurors.

Marry in Lexington

The marriage of W. Kidd Allen and Mrs. Jack Lisle, prominent young couple of Winchester, took place Saturday night in Lexington. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Porter. The bride is the grand-daughter of J. M. Anderson, of near Kiddleville, and is the widow of Jack Lisle, wealthy young Clark county planter. Mr. Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Allen, and is connected with Baldwin Jewelry Co. Both Mr. Allen and his bride are well known here and have many friends in this city.

51ST ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenwade entertained about fifty friends and relatives at their beautiful country home on the Spencer pike. The home was decorated with a profusion of flowers and at noon a delicious lunch was served in courses. During the afternoon the happy crowd was invited to eat some of Mr. Greenwade's famous water-melons and was asked back to help celebrate their 52nd anniversary should God be so good as to let them live.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Camargo Christian church had its September meeting at the Sulphur well just below Camargo. This was their first anniversary. The women's husbands and some friends were their guests. After the program an excellent supper was enjoyed by all.

We have just received a carload of canal coal. Give us your order NOW.—Mt. Sterling Commission & Storage Co.

Local Men Buy R. E. Punch Clothing Store

The clothing store of the late R. E. Punch was sold today by R. G. Kern, administrator of the estate, to Bruce P. Duty and James M. Nesbitt, who will take charge in November. The deal does not include the shoe department of the Punch Company. This concern is one of the largest business houses in this section and has enjoyed great prosperity for many years.

Under the new management its success is assured as both Mr. Duty and Mr. Nesbitt are men of rare business ability, are splendid salesmen, and are extremely popular with the trade. As has been the policy of this company in the past, the new firm will cater to the high class trade and will handle only the best in clothing and haberdashery.

City Schools Opened Yesterday

The Mt. Sterling City Schools opened yesterday with an unusually large attendance for the first day, there being 406 pupils enrolled in the Grammar School and 97 in the High School, making a total of 513, an increase of ten over last year. The Home Economics Department under the supervision of Miss Elsie Potter, will be opened for work this week.

Prof. Babb urges all patrons to keep their children at home until 8 o'clock in the mornings. Many of them congregate on the school grounds at a much earlier hour, causing great inconvenience and annoyance.

Mrs. Haggard Brings Suit For Divorce

Mrs. Nancy Mullins Haggard through her attorney, Ronald Oldham, has filed suit in the Clark Circuit Court for divorce from her husband, Rodney Haggard, custody of their four-year-old daughter, and alimony in the sum of $20,000. Mrs. Haggard alleges in her petition, cruel and inhuman treatment, that the defendant has at times, threatened her life, and had driven her from home. The plaintiff further charges that her husband is partly responsible for the rumors circulated which have been hurtful to her reputation and character.

Mr. Vigneti Resigns

Georges Vigneti, who has been director of the violin department of the Lexington College of Music, has resigned his position and has taken a place in the Cleveland orchestra of which Nikolai Sokoloff is director. His successor at the College of Music will be announced within a few days. Mr. Vigneti's many friends and patrons in this city, where he taught with such marked success the past term, will learn with regret of his leaving Lexington.

SELL PROPERTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Withrow, of Lexington, have sold their property in this city consisting of frame residence and brick store building on the corner of Main and Willow streets, to C. M. Brown, of Jeffersonville, this county, for a private consideration.

FINE PLACE OF BUSINESS

With the completion of the building now occupied by the Montgomery Motor Co. they now have 16,800 square feet of floor space. This garage now has a handsomely finished office and display rooms and is one of the most complete and modern buildings in the State.

William Enoch and Miss Sandefur Elope

Miss Mary Sandefur and William Enoch, prominent young society people of this city, eloped to Cincinnati where they were married Monday morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Sandefur, and is one of this city's loveliest young girls. She was a student at the City High School and is very bright and attractive. Mr. Enoch is a son of Mrs. John C. Enoch, and is a successful business man, being a member of the Enoch Manufacturing Co. firm. He is well known and popular over the State. The couple, after a short bridal trip will return to this city to make their home.

Enterprising Merchant

Miner A. Denton, of Hillsboro, Fleming county, one of the most enterprising merchants in the State, was a visitor in this city yesterday. Mr. Denton has demonstrated that "It Pays to Advertise." In a town of only 200 or 300 people he has built up a business of $50,000 to $65,000 a year, simply by having a modern store and advertising his goods. His store at Hillsboro has electric lights, rest rooms and every convenience to be found in the big city department stores.

Returns to Somerset

Clay Miller has returned to Somerset to take charge of the printing department of the high school at that place. That Mr. Miller is eminently fitted to hold this position no question can be raised. His absence from the printer's art at this place is a genuine loss and we would be pleased to see him permanently located in Mt. Sterling again. Best wishes of his host of friends go with him to his new field of labor.

TAX PAYERS

You have been repeatedly warned to list your property for taxes. The time limit is near, so please come to the office at once and save yourself from being reported to the Board of Supervisors.

Montgomery County Methodists are Pleased

The Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church South in their appointments at Lexington for this district greatly pleased our people.

Dr. G. E. Cameron, one of the most gifted preachers of the conference, is to continue as Presiding Elder of this district. Dr. J. L. Clark continues as pastor of the local church and in this assignment the conference could not have pleased the people generally more. As a pastor and preacher Dr. Clark is above criticism and is greatly beloved by his members. Rev. J. S. Ragan's appointment to the rural district of this county, Grassy Lick and Camargo, is also a source of joy to both the memberships and congregations. The citizens of Mt. Sterling where Rev. Ragan and family reside, are also pleased that this good family is to continue as citizens of this city. Likewise our people, and we are sure the membership and congregations of Rev. J. L. West at Morehead are overjoyed on account of Rev. West's return. Rev. West is not only a thoughtful and good preacher but as an individual he ranks as a man among men.

RESUMES PUBLICATION

The Winchester Daily Democrat with the motto: "The People's Paper" and which has been dormant for some weeks has changed ownership. R. Z. Wharton becoming owner and publisher, makes its appearance with Labor Day. We most cordially welcome Mr. Wharton to our state and wish for him a successful career in old Kentucky. We tip "water-wagon glasses" and will travel with our new comes hand and heart for Democracy.

Word-of Thanks

We want to thank our many friends for their kindness shown us in the death of our darling baby, William Coons.

Aids to Health and Beauty

But science has progressed so far that such secret use of little known oils. We know that with proper use and patience and proper attention that may be made beautiful and that ordinary features can be made normal and even attractive.

There is nothing more attractive than a woman with a clear, healthy complexion. The use and give of beauty that makes an impression, quite often before beauty even has a chance to open their full beauty to the world. From it is the possession of a fair skin that is the first step toward a perfect face. That skin must have and maintain should be kept at making it as near perfect as possible in its own way.

FARMERS OUTSIDE OF CENTRAL KY. VISIT BLUE GRASS

The Blue Grass section has been visited this summer by groups of farmers from Lewis, Washington and Taylor counties and from the states of Georgia and Texas to the number of 713 persons. Soil maintenance, crop production and livestock management were the subjects of the lectures and they have been shown the leading farms in Central Kentucky on their trips.

Each group of farmers was shown the Kentucky Experiment Station, the Station farm and the work in research being done under the direction of the College of Agriculture. Experiments in soil production and maintenance, stock breeding and feeding, crop rotation and perfection were explained in detail by members of the College of Agriculture and Extension Division staff as the farmers were taken over the farm from place to place.

The owners or managers of the livestock and general farms in the Bluegrass have made the richest welcome on each occasion and the hosts of hundreds of livestock together with the improvement on the well-known agricultural estates were seen. The list of show farms for the summer has consisted of the farms owned by Pete O'Hara, O. L. Troutman, E. H. Taylor, McKee Brothers, J. H. Camden, Mayfield, Cold Stream and Walnut Hill.

BUICK

STURDILY built—designed for power and dependability, possessing grace and beauty in every line—the new Buick Nineteen Twenty One series signally upholds the traditions that have made the name Buick a notable word in the automobile industry. Two decades have more than justified the unwavering fidelity to the accepted engineering ideals to which Buick stands committed. The same rugged Valve-in-Head motor refined is a distinguishing feature of every model. In appearance, the Buick Nineteen Twenty One series is notable for the harmonious blending of low, graceful body lines; in appointments, for those added refinements that so materially increase the pleasure and comfort of motoring.

In addition to the general features of the new models the Buick Five-Passenger Touring Car (Twenty One Pony Five) possesses a roominess of tonneau and new arrangement of seating that afford occupants the utmost in riding comfort. For the business man or his family; for the needs of city driving or country driving, this model excels because of its capacity for varied service.

REPUBLICAN PAPER COMES OUT FOR COX

Declaring that Republican leadership in the country has broken faith with the rank and file of the party, with the American people as a whole, and with humanity everywhere, and that the Democratic platform offers "peace, lasting peace, built on the justice of the Golden Rule which humanity is praying for," the Norristown Times, a Republican newspaper since its founding in 1851, announces that, in accordance with the dictates of conscience and in the belief that it is doing a patriotic and humanitarian duty, it cannot do other than support Cox and Roosevelt for President and Vice President.

The Times' denunciation of the Republican platform and tactics has caused a sensation in this Republican stronghold. It sets forth that "for the sake of gratifying hate the Republican leadership would pass over the glory of American boys on the bloody stretches of France and Belgium, breaking faith with those who returned as well as those who died."

Republicans are charged by The Times with premeditating the murder of the treaty, dishonoring the word "Americanism," and ignoring the sentiment of the people of the country with their "double-faced platform." The League of Nations is indorsed, and it is contended that with the assistance of the United States, lasting peace will be crystallized into an actual fact.

Luke Rielly Says "The Rat Died Before Reaching the River."

"Since moving near the river two years ago, we've always used RAT-SNAP. Watched a vicious water rat, nibbling at RAT-SNAP outside the house. About 15 minutes later he darted off for the water, to cool his burning stomach, but he died before reaching it." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Chenault & Orear.

PLANT WHEAT AT USUAL TIME

The Hessian fly, the great wheat destroyer in Kentucky, will probably make its appearance this year about September 1st to 10th, as the many rains recently furnished sufficient moisture to make the fly emerge. The department of entomology, College of Agriculture, says that as no other insect causes more damage to the wheat crop of the State than the Hessian fly and there is no such thing as fly-proof wheat, the best method to follow to avoid loss is a preventative method and is simply to delay the planting of wheat until the main body of the fly emerges in the fall. In Kentucky according to the location the time of planting wheat varies. In the Blue Grass section, October 5 is the time and in the western part of the state it should be planted October 20. The early rains may bring the flies out earlier this year but the farmer should plant wheat about the regular time. Circular No. 4, prepared by the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, on the Hessian Fly covers the subject thoroughly.

JUNIOR RED CROSS WORKING AT HOME

Production of Sound American Citizenship the First Aim, Says Dr. Farrand.

On the badge of every member of the Junior Red Cross are the words "I Serve." That tells the story of the school children's branch of the American Red Cross and its efforts to bring happiness to children throughout the world.

Realizing that the time never was so propitious as right now for teaching the highest ideals of citizenship, the entire present program of the Junior Red Cross has been framed under the very inclusive phrase, "Training for Citizenship Through Service" for others. Since the Junior Red Cross is the agency through which the American Red Cross reaches the schoolboys and the schoolgirls, all its activities are designed to come within the regular school program, and without creating new courses or increasing the number of studies to lend its aid in vitalizing the work of the schools.

"The thing that is needed," says Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the American Red Cross Central Committee, "is not a perpetuation of the Junior Red Cross, but the training and breeding of sound American citizenship inspired by the true, fundamental ideals of sound democracy. One of the great conceptions in making the Red Cross a contributor to better citizenship in our American democracy is the realization that after all the sole hope of any nation is with the children of the country."

The plan of organization of the Junior Red Cross makes the school—public, parochial and private—the unit, not the individual pupils. Mutual service, helpful community work such as clean-up campaigns, care of the sick, promotion of health regulations, participation in civic and patriotic movements—all these creative agencies designed to translate into life and action the regular school program are parts of the machinery which the Junior Red Cross places at the disposal of the school authorities.

Graded study courses giving practical methods of civic training, supplemented by pamphlets and helpful suggestions, are supplied to the local schools by the Junior Red Cross. An elaborate plan for promoting an interchange of correspondence between children in different sections of the United States as well as with children in foreign lands is being devised and will take a prominent place in the established classroom program.

In promoting the general cause of child welfare, Red Cross courses in home hygiene and care of the sick, first aid, and dieting may be established in all Junior Red Cross Auxiliaries.

The ideals and the objective of the Junior Red Cross are embodied in the pledge of service which the pupil takes when he signs the membership roll and pins on his coat the Junior's badge. The pledge which binds together service and citizenship reads:

"We will seek in all ways to live up to the ideals of the Junior Red Cross and devote ourselves to its service."

"We will strive never to bring discredit to this, our country, by any unworthy act."

"We will reverence and obey our country's laws and do our best to inspire a like reverence and obedience in those about us."

"We will endeavor in all these ways, as good citizens, to transmit America greater, better and more beautiful than she was transmitted to us."

At the foundation of this school program of the Junior Red Cross is a great love for America's children.

RED CROSS ACTIVE IN DISASTER RELIEF

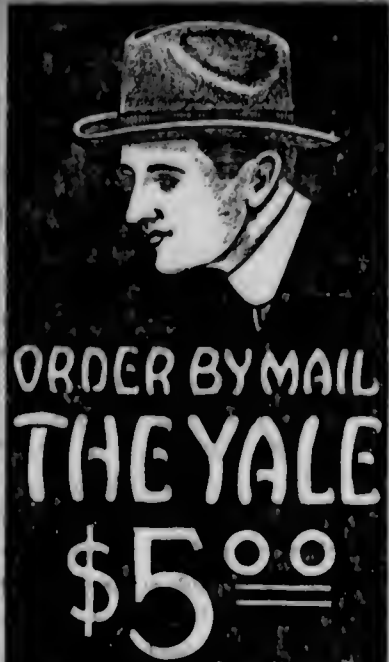

When disaster hits a community—fire, flood, earthquake, explosion, bad wreck or tornado—the American Red Cross can be depended upon to follow right at its heels with help for the stricken people. Red Cross relief is almost immediately forthcoming—food, clothing, shelter and funds; doctors, nurses and special workers with long experience in handling similar trouble elsewhere.

During the last year, ending June 30, there was an average of four disasters a month in the United States. One hundred and fifty communities in twenty-seven states suffered. The largest and most destructive of these were the tidal wave at Corpus Christi, Texas, and tornadoes in Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

In these events of horror 850 persons were killed, 1,500 were injured, 13,000 were made homeless, about 30,000 families needed help, the property loss was nearly $100,000,000 and almost $1,000,000 in relief funds, not including emergency supplies was expended.

To the sufferers from all disasters during the year, the American Red Cross sent $120,000 worth of supplies, 110 Red Cross nurses and seven special relief trains. To meet the needs of the stricken, the organization set up ten relief stations, operated thirty food canteens and as many emergency hospitals. One hundred and twenty-five Red Cross chapters gave disaster relief service.

If disaster ever strikes this town or county, the citizens can be absolutely sure the Red Cross will be right on hand to help them in every way.

VALUE OF FIELD SELECTION OF SEED CORN

In order that a variety of corn be kept up to a high standard of vigor and productiveness it is necessary that only the stronger growing, healthy and productive plants be selected for seed plants. It is, of course, true that like tends to produce like and this is just as true in corn or other plants as with animals. The ideal time then to select seed corn is while the plants are standing full and strong in the field for then we can study the plant itself and also study its environment.

A very large proportion of the grains on an ear of corn are cross fertilized and it is, of course, desirable that the pollen should come only from healthy vigorous plants. It is reasonable to assume that most of the pollination is from nearby plants, therefore by taking care that the seed ears collected does not stand near to a barren or weak plant we can do much to eliminate the weak individuals from the variety. One can also pick a type of plant that most nearly suits his ideals.

From the standpoint of ease of handling the crop the stalk should not be overly tall and the ear should be borne at a medium distance from the ground. It is very easy to gradually bring a variety of corn to a type that is desired. Field selection also has the advantage in that it requires early gathering and drying. This is decidedly the most important factor of all in procuring good seed corn and the man who practices field selection is bound to procure these advantages according to the Department of Agronomy, of the College of Agriculture.

MONROE COUNTY IN LINE

Monroe county, Mo. is going in strong for Thrift and Saving this year, and if the plans outlined and adopted by the educational authorities at a meeting in Paris recently are carried out, Monroe county will profit vastly.

The directors from all of the school districts, and the teachers who will preside over the destinies of the rural schools in the big Missouri county, met in convention at Paris, and it was decided that thrift and systematic saving should be included in the regular curriculum and that at least one period each week should be devoted to the subject.

As investment is one of the most important topics it was decided that the pupils should be urged to invest their small savings in Thrift Stamps with the ultimate aim of obtaining interest bearing War Savings Stamps or United States Treasury Savings Certificates.

SATURDAY A GREAT DAY

At the Courthouse Saturday afternoon the circuit court room was well filled with farmers who organized themselves into a body to be known as the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association. Mr. T. Benton Hill had called the meeting and when the farmers assembled a resolution was offered which carried with it the desired effect, the organization of the White Burley Tobacco Growers' Association. Mr. Hill in speaking of the resolution covered the entire ground and showed most forcibly, eloquently and logically the results that may come to every grower should they leave this matter in the hands of the trusts, unbridled. Mr. Hill declared movements made by the trusts that not only tied markets in this country to their interests but that of all countries where the weed is grown. The movement that is now on is for the benefit of the trusts while the growers pay the freight. Following Mr. Hill's speech the body elected him president of the local organization and Mr. William Highland secretary. The enrollment in the house numbered about fifty and we are informed that others that had papers will be able to turn in a list of the most influential farmers that may number among the hundreds. This organization seems to mean business and as it is here it is at all other points in the Burley belt, determined to make a solid front against the trust. We have never seen a more determined and resolute class of men than was gathered on Saturday afternoon, and believe us, under the leadership of Mr. Hill the trust will have cause to tremble, to repent and get ready for justice to all men.

LOOK TO THE WEST FOR RESULTS

The Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency, Mr. Roosevelt, has just returned from the West where he declares that section is becoming more solidly packed for the Democratic nominees and that the Great Common people will not longer be burden bearers to the advantage of the few who by their manipulations are making the rich richer and the poor poorer. Both men and women are alive to their interests and a tremendous vote for Democracy will come from the West. Indignation over an attempt to purchase the presidency is cementing with each passing day. Mr. Roosevelt says: "I read the lame answer by Treasurer Upham and Will Hays. One of them says there is an important distinction between a quota and a budget; the other makes denial by saying that 'Governor Cox and I dream in millions.' Such a defense would fail before any jury."

"But I want to stress one thing in particular, we are again face to face with a big national moral issue. We have had campaigns in the past where money was spent like water. We had hoped that as a nation, we were getting away from that degrading and dangerous evil in our national life. But this year, we find that it has sprung up anew to threaten us, beginning only a short time ago, with the exposure and conviction of Senator Newberry."

$4,000,000.00 FOR ROADS

"A warning to Kentucky and other states not to delay in absorbing their apportionment of Federal road funds has been issued by Bureau of Public Roads of the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Kentucky's share is $1,951,755, and the State must enter into contract with the Federal Government by July, 1922. Money not taken up by that time will be apportioned among the other states. If Kentucky absorbs this entire apportionment it will mean that more than $4,000,000 worth of Federal aid road construction will be undertaken during the next two years."

Such a statement as this, authoritatively delivered, should arouse our people to action now. With our County Commissioners spending every cent TO THE BEST POSSIBLE ADVANTAGE, our roads at this very moment are reported in a poor condition and we are advised that under the same character of freight that went over them the winter just past, will put them in such condition that it will be impossible to deliver the mails by motor the coming winter. These facts and thoughts we give, hoping our citizens may be moved to prompt action.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS AND FIGURES WON'T LIE

We clip from the Knoxville, Tenn. Sentinel an article that the reader, it matters not how thoughtful he may be, cannot get away from, and proves to a certainty the truthfulness of Governor James M. Cox's charge relative to the Republican corruption fund:

"We can not think so, in view of the fact that we have positive evidence of the truth of it brought home to us in the extensively advertised fact that 'little old Knox county' in Tennessee has been allotted $15,000 as her portion of this fund, and the party's agent has been here to see that she duly comes across. Let us do a little figuring based on this allotment. Knox county has upwards of 100,000 population, we believe. Divide the United States' 110,000,000 and more population by 100,000 and we have the equivalent of 1,100 counties of the size of Knox, haven't we? Multiply $15,000 by 1,100 and what do we have? Our answer says $16,500,000. This is Governor Cox's $15,000,000 and then some."

WON'T BUY

It has been stated that the amount raised by Democrats for campaign purposes is only $60,000, and it might well be added that $60,000 will not buy the presidency. It has been estimated it will require a corruption fund of $15,000,000.00 for the Republicans to land a majority of electors for Senator Harding. It was the immortal Henry Clay who said, "I would rather be right than President." May this sentiment prevail and electrify every voter in the United States. Right is right and will not down. Sixty thousand dollars is sufficient so long as it meets current expenses. Democrats have no use for a corruption fund, for they will practice what they preach—an untrammeled Democracy with a people acting according to the dictates of their conscience, a free unshackled people.

Articles of Incorporation of Burley Tobacco Growers Association.

Know All Men by These Presents:

That the undersigned do hereby associate themselves together for the purpose of forming and organizing a corporation having no capital stock, and from which no pecuniary profit is to be derived, pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of March 22, 1892; and for which purpose they have signed and hereby issue the following articles of incorporation:

1. The said corporation hereby proposes to be formed and organized shall be named and known as the BURLEY TOBACCO GROWERS' ASSOCIATION, by which name it may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with; have and use a common seal; acquire, receive and hold such real and personal property as may be necessary to carry on or to promote the objects of said corporation.

- II. The principal office and place of business of said corporation shall be in the City of Lexington, County of Fayette, State of Kentucky.

- III. The nature of the business and objects and purposes to be promoted and carried on by said corporation shall be the creation and forming of an association of persons engaged in the industry of producing Burley Tobacco; and the purposes and objects of said association shall be the promotion, fostering, encouragement and advancement in every manner of the growing, cultivation and production of Burley Tobacco; and said corporation shall have the right and authority to enact, establish and enforce such rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper for said purposes; and the said corporation shall also have the right and authority to take all the necessary and proper steps to secure a complete association of and efficient co-operation between such persons; to take such steps and to do all such things as may be necessary or proper to secure and disseminate among its members the fullest knowledge and information concerning the growing, production and handling of Burley Tobacco; to take such steps and do such things as may be necessary or proper to introduce and establish the best methods of growing, producing and handling Burley Tobacco; and to take such steps and do such things as may be necessary or proper for securing the best market for the said Burley Tobacco; and to do all things necessary or proper to carry out the above mentioned plans and purposes.

- In order to attain its ends and to accomplish its purposes, the said association shall possess and have the right to exercise all the powers conferred upon such a corporation by the laws of Kentucky.

- IV. The corporation shall have no capital stock, and no private pecuniary profit is to be derived from it.

- V. The names and place of residence of the persons who shall be the incorporators of said corporation are as follows:

NAME

RESIDENCE

- VI. The said corporation shall commence business as soon as it is organized and authorized to do business by the laws of the State of Kentucky, and the officers thereof; and it shall continue for the period of fifty (50) years, unless sooner dissolved according to law.

- VII. The affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors of not less than TEN directors and not more than TWENTY-FIVE directors, and the exact number of such directors may be determined and fixed by the members of the corporation at their annual meeting.

The number of the first board of directors shall be determined and the members of said board shall be elected by the incorporators of said company at the principal office of said company at a day to be fixed by the majority of said incorporators, which meeting and election shall be held as soon as convenient after the filing of these articles, and the members of said board of directors, so elected, shall hold their offices until the first regular annual meeting of the incorporators and members of said association, which annual meeting shall be held at the company's principal office in Lexington, Kentucky, on the first Monday in the month of March, 1921, and an annual meeting of the members shall be held on the first Monday of the month of March of each year thereafter, at which annual meetings a new board of directors shall be elected, who shall hold their offices one year, or until the election and qualification of their successors.

When a board of directors of said corporation shall be elected, as above set out, it shall hold a meeting, and from their number shall elect a president, a first vice president and a second vice president; and shall elect from their number four (4) members of an executive committee, who, together with the president, shall constitute an executive committee of five (5), who shall perform and carry out the directions and orders of the board of directors, and conduct the affairs of the corporation when the board of directors is not in session.

At said meeting and at each annual meeting of the board of directors shall also elect a secretary and a treasurer of said corporation, and if the board so determine, the offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person, and said office, or either of them, may be held by such a person not a member of the board of directors.

The board of directors of said corporation shall hold at least four (4) regular meetings during each year, the date of which shall be fixed by the by-laws, and such other meetings from time to time, as it may decide upon.

The board of directors shall have the right to adopt and enforce such

"Tanlac Is Certainly a Fine Medicine For Elderly People," She Says

Among the many Kentucky people who have recently testified to the powers of Tanlac is Mrs. Nannie Chappell, residing at 3724 Old Third street, Louisville, who in relating her experience said:

"I am now seventy-five years of age, but I doubt if there are many women that old who feel any better than I do since taking Tanlac. Why, during all the years of my life I have never seen or heard of a medicine to equal it, for a few bottles have relieved me of a case of rheumatism, nervousness and indigestion that had troubled me for twenty-three years. Sometimes my lower limbs hurt me so bad I couldn't walk and at times my arms pained me so I couldn't raise my hands to comb my hair. I had several attacks every year and while they were on me I could neither get up or down without help. Many a time I got so nervous I would shake like a leaf and just dreaded to see night come, for it was impossible for me to sleep. My appetite left me, too, and everything I ate disagreed with me.

"Finally I got so bad off with this rheumatism that I couldn't stay on my feet any longer. While I was down in bed my son, who is a passenger engineer on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, came to see me and said, 'Mother you remember how I suffered so long with stomach trouble and could hardly eat at all, and lost weight and thought I would have to quit work. Well, you see me now weighing two hundred and fifteen pounds, and in such a good condition that I can eat pork or anything else I want and my health just perfect. Tanlac did this for me and I'm going to get you a bottle.' So, he did and almost as soon as I began taking it I felt better. In a few days I had a good appetite and was able to get out of bed. I have taken three bottles of Tanlac now and am feeling like a different person. Every sign of the rheumatism is gone and I am not only able to sleep soundly every night but I usually take a nap during the day. Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine for old people and I will gladly tell anyone personally just what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Mt. Sterling by Land & Priest.

"DYE WORK A SPECIALTY"

POINTS ON HARVESTING TOBACCO

One of the most difficult things for the beginner in tobacco growing is to determine when tobacco has reached the proper stage for harvesting. This is especially true of Burley tobacco as the quality of the leaf is influenced considerably by the stage at which the plant is cut. As a general thing the quality of Burley is better if the plants are cut a little before fully matured. The leaf cures out a little brighter and more nearly meets the present market demand. Cutting very green, however, is not advisable as the tobacco may fail to yellow properly and there is also considerable loss in weight. Just how green or immature white Burley can be cut and still be an acceptable quality of leaf has not been definitely determined. The Kentucky Experiment Station is making tests along this line since the prevalence of rust and wild fire has made it necessary in many cases to cut early or to lose the crop. As white Burley tobacco approaches maturity it naturally yellows and becomes mottled. It can be cut at any time after this mottling begins with the assurance that a good quality of leaf will be produced. In the case of black tobacco the longer the plants can stand after maturity or rather if they can be left standing until perfectly mature the leaves will take on gum and oil and will become heavier. A heavy, rich leaf is desirable in black tobacco. Careless handling of tobacco may bruise it severely and cause considerable damage.

EDUCATIONAL TOOTH TALK—10 Does It Hurt?

Many people hold a dentist in perfect horror. They look upon the most inoffensive instrument as a synonym of misery. The people have either been much abused in the past or they are simply prejudiced. It is no longer necessary to endure severe pain in order to give your teeth their proper attention. Painless dentistry is almost a reality; it is only in very exceptional cases where the fear of pain need give you any worry. Indeed, it is only where the teeth have been sadly neglected that there need be any pain at all. A little discomfort now is surely better than a real "hurt" which will probably come if the teeth are neglected long enough. Do it now, for comfort's sake—Dr. H. M. Wright, Traders Bank Bldg.

We worry over the troubles of tomorrow, and yet, when we meet them we put on a full head of steam and send them high-whirling off the track.

Ask Your Soldier Boy How "Coolies" Got Such a Hold.

He'll tell you that the battlefronts of Europe were swarming with rats, which carried the dangerous vermin and caused our men misery. Don't let rats bring disease into your home. When you see the first one get RAT-SNAP. That will finish them quick. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Chennault & O'ear.

A SYNDICATE PRESIDENT

If by any misarrangement of suffrage, Senator Harding should be successful at the polls, who would be President of the United States?

The Senator and the "dominant group in the Senate" that nominated him have repudiated what they call a "one man" Presidency, provided by the Constitution. The candidate has even announced that he intends to make the Vice President a member of his Cabinet, for which there is no provision whatever in the Constitution. The Presidency is to be run by a syndicate; everybody—that is, everybody in the Senator-Syndicate—is to have something to say.

There is no question about who will be President if Governor Cox shall be elected. The President in name and in fact will be James M. Cox. If Senator Harding shall be elected the President in name will be Warren G. Harding, but a Board of Directors composed of Penrose, Lodge, Smoot et al., will be President in fact.

Do the American people want syndicate President?

It is always the open season for killing time.

FARM MANAGEMENT A PHASE OF WORK IN SHORT COURSE

Farm management, which has become one of the most difficult problems for the farmer, especially the young farmer, to solve is a feature of the short course in agriculture to be given by the College of Agriculture beginning November 1. The course will deal with the dollars and cents side of farming. Students taking the farm management course will learn how to organize and manage the farm to make it pay the largest total profit year after year.

The work offered in the course will include the fundamental principles of farm management such as handling men, houses and machinery for the best results; how to lay out fields and buildings for the greatest economy of time and labor; the most profitable crops to grow and the proper acreage for these crops; the proper classes of livestock to use and how heavily to stock the farm; the proportion of the total capital to invest in land, buildings, livestock, machinery, etc., the points to consider in buying or renting a farm and in choosing a region for farming. Students will be instructed in a simple method of keeping farm accounts. The lectures will be illustrated by detailed study of the business management of some of the most successful and profitable farms located in various sections of Kentucky and trips will be made to a number of these farms for the purpose of studying their management. The work is in charge of Professor W. D. Nicholls, head of the department.

A course in agricultural economies will deal from the farm point of view with such questions as land values, the effect of increasing or decreasing prices, credit for the farmer, tenancy and land ownership and the effect of transportation.

The Certain-teed Guarantee as a Basis for Estimating Roofing Cost

The Certain-teed guarantee provides a basis for estimating the approximate cost per year of your new roof. Certain-teed Roofing, Number 3 Heavy, is guaranteed for fifteen years. It usually lasts longer.

Taking fifteen years as the assured life and dividing the unusually low cost of Certain-teed, as compared to most modern types of roofing, by this figure, you readily see how economical Certain-teed is.

The light and medium weights of Certain-teed are also guaranteed, five years for the former and ten years for the latter.

In addition to its durability, Certain-teed is weather-proof, fire-retarding and spark-proof.

And it costs less to buy, less to lay and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing.

See a Certain-teed dealer about roofing. If he hasn't enough of the weight you want in stock he can quickly get more from a nearby Certain-teed warehouse or distributing center.

PROGRESSIVE LEADER FINDS HARDING "UNFIT"

Harold L. Ickes, one of the organizers of the Progressive party in Illinois, who was an Illinois delegate at large to the convention which nominated Senator Harding for President and voted against making the nomination unanimous, announced that he could not support Harding.

"Holding as I do that my duties and obligations as a citizen are paramount to my duties and obligations as a party man, I have concluded to support the Democratic national ticket in this campaign," said Mr. Ickes, in a signed statement. "I shall continue to affiliate with the Republican party, but I cannot in good conscience support for President a candidate who was not the real choice of his party and whom I regard as unworthy and unfit to be the Chief Executive of this nation by the tests of ability, public policies, official record and independence of character."

Mr. Ickes declared the primaries showed that the Republican party did not want Harding as its candidate, and that his nomination was "a distinct shock to the progressive thought of the country."

"Senator Harding had an opportunity to repair the bad impression that his nomination created and his play-acting in the McKinley role kept alive by a clearcut and ringing speech of acceptance that would have lined him up squarely as a forward-looking, progressively minded man," Mr. Ickes continued. "But once more he failed signally. His speech shows that he is not even satisfied to stand pat. He proclaims himself a reactionary. He would turn back the hands of the clock and satisfy the aspirations of men's souls by talking of a full stomach. No more uninspired and uninspiring utterance from a public man is of record in American political history.

"What Senator Harding believes in is not party government, but its control. He has the Mark Hanna conception of party. He looks upon the Republican Senate cabal as the Republican hosts and deceives himself that when Senators Smoot and Watson and Lodge, Murray, Crane, James Hemingway and Col. Harvey met privately in a room in the Blackstone Hotel at 2 o'clock in the morning to decide upon him as the candidate and to determine his policies, the Republican party was assembled together for solemn deliberation."

"Governor Cox's record is a distinctly progressive record," said Mr. Ickes. "That record proves that he looks upon public office as an opportunity for public service. He is standing in this campaign upon what he has achieved along progressive lines for the public welfare. His eyes are to the front, fixed on the future. He is not wabbling. And he is running as James M. Cox; he is not masquerading as a second edition of Grover Cleveland or a substitute Andrew Jackson." — New York Times.

Singing of good times is well enough in its way, but its working for 'em which makes the dollars join the halleluiah chorus.

THE PREWITT REUNION

Had I a list of kin as long
As that Prewitt reunion shows,
The furc would have to be a song,
Had I to feed them, Goodness knows!

For I've no larger big enough.
Tho filled to its capacity
With meat and meal, and other stuff
To feed so vast a company!

I know the Goff's and Prewitt's well
And that they are good livers, all,
Who at the tinkle of the bell
Are ready into line to fall.

For once, on a Thanksgiving day,
Too long ago 'most to remember,
(Yet, in a retrospective way
Know it was, of course, November).

Hard by El Bethel, grim and gray,
'Twas my good fortune to partake
With others, of a meal, I say,
As still the sweetest mem'ries wake.

Think of a hundred-fifty-three,
Filing into the dining hall
(All dropped from one old fam'ly tree)
In answer to the dinner call.

Think of the viands it would take.
With sugar at so much per pound,
And flour it would take to make
Biscuit enough to go around.

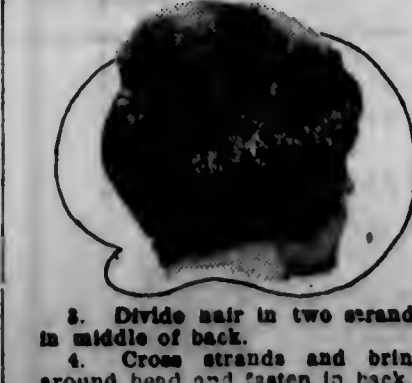

Think of the chickens, baked and fried,
And of the pies, and tarts, and cake,
And all the dainties on the side,
Prepared and served for kinship's sake.

Think of the good old country ham,
Than which there's nothing under heaven,
Unless it is blackberry jam,
More pleasure to the palate's given!

It takes a Croesus to withstand
The drain upon his finances,
And I'm not full enough of hand
To take such risky chances.

And then suppose, for argument,
An appetizer of some sort
Was furnished at such an event,
At cost of sixteen bucks a quart!

PROMOTER OF SILK INDUSTRY FOR U. S.

Dr. Varton K. Osigian of New Orleans, Armenian, now an American citizen, is a descendant of a family which had been in the silk weaving business in Armenia for 728 years. Dr. Osigian is the only remaining heir to the art of silk making, as the entire family was wiped out by massacres and the war. Adding scientific research in two universities to his inherited knowledge of sericulture he now has a great understanding of this profitable business and is endeavoring to induce capital to take up the industry in this country.

CORRESPONDENCE

Camargo and Vicinity

The rainy weather is the most serious topic of the day among the farmers, especially so with the tobacco grower who needs good sunshine to save the big crop.

Miss Ruth Long spent the week-end with her parents at Richmond.

Mrs. Clemmie Pendleton, of Henry county, is visiting her sisters, Miss Pink Ricketts and Mrs. Emma Pendleton.

T. H. Greenwade was in Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. Newt Reid and son visited W. H. Reid and family Sunday.

J. D. Stofor sold last week 67 fat cattle, weight 1400 pounds, to Henry Caywood at 14 1-2 cents.

W. F. Chappell and wife are visiting in Taylor county.

Miss Pink Ricketts, Thomas Ricketts and Miss Emma Crain attended the M. E. Conference at Lexington Sunday.

Joe Ricketts, wife and two children, of Ozark county, Mo., are visiting his parents and other relatives here.

M. C. Wilson sold ten 600-pound steers to Ray Moss at 8 cents.

Mrs. Lizzie Goodan was quite sick last week.

Wind and wind damaged crops to quite an extent here a few days ago. Ray Moss, wife and son, Frank, motored to Lexington Friday.

LEXINGTON TROTS

On October 4, the opening day at LEXINGTON, there will be two races that will go down in history, The Futurity ($7,000), for 2-year-olds and the Walnut Hall Cup ($3,000) for trotters. In the former every good 2-year-old in America is eligible; and of those named for the cup eleven have already won amongst the very best company, namely, Peter Coley, Tootsie Toise, Millie Irwin, Native Chief, Walnut Frisco, Bonnie Del, Comit, Brother Peter, Eliza Dillon, Bevola and Edgar Worthy.

There is no logic in calling a man a liar. But, somehow or other, there is a heluva lot of satisfaction in it.
